Song 6 I Will Sing in the Morning

Psalm 108 – A song of steadfast praise and confidence in God. The psalmist declares he will awake the dawn with worship and trusts God for victory over enemies.

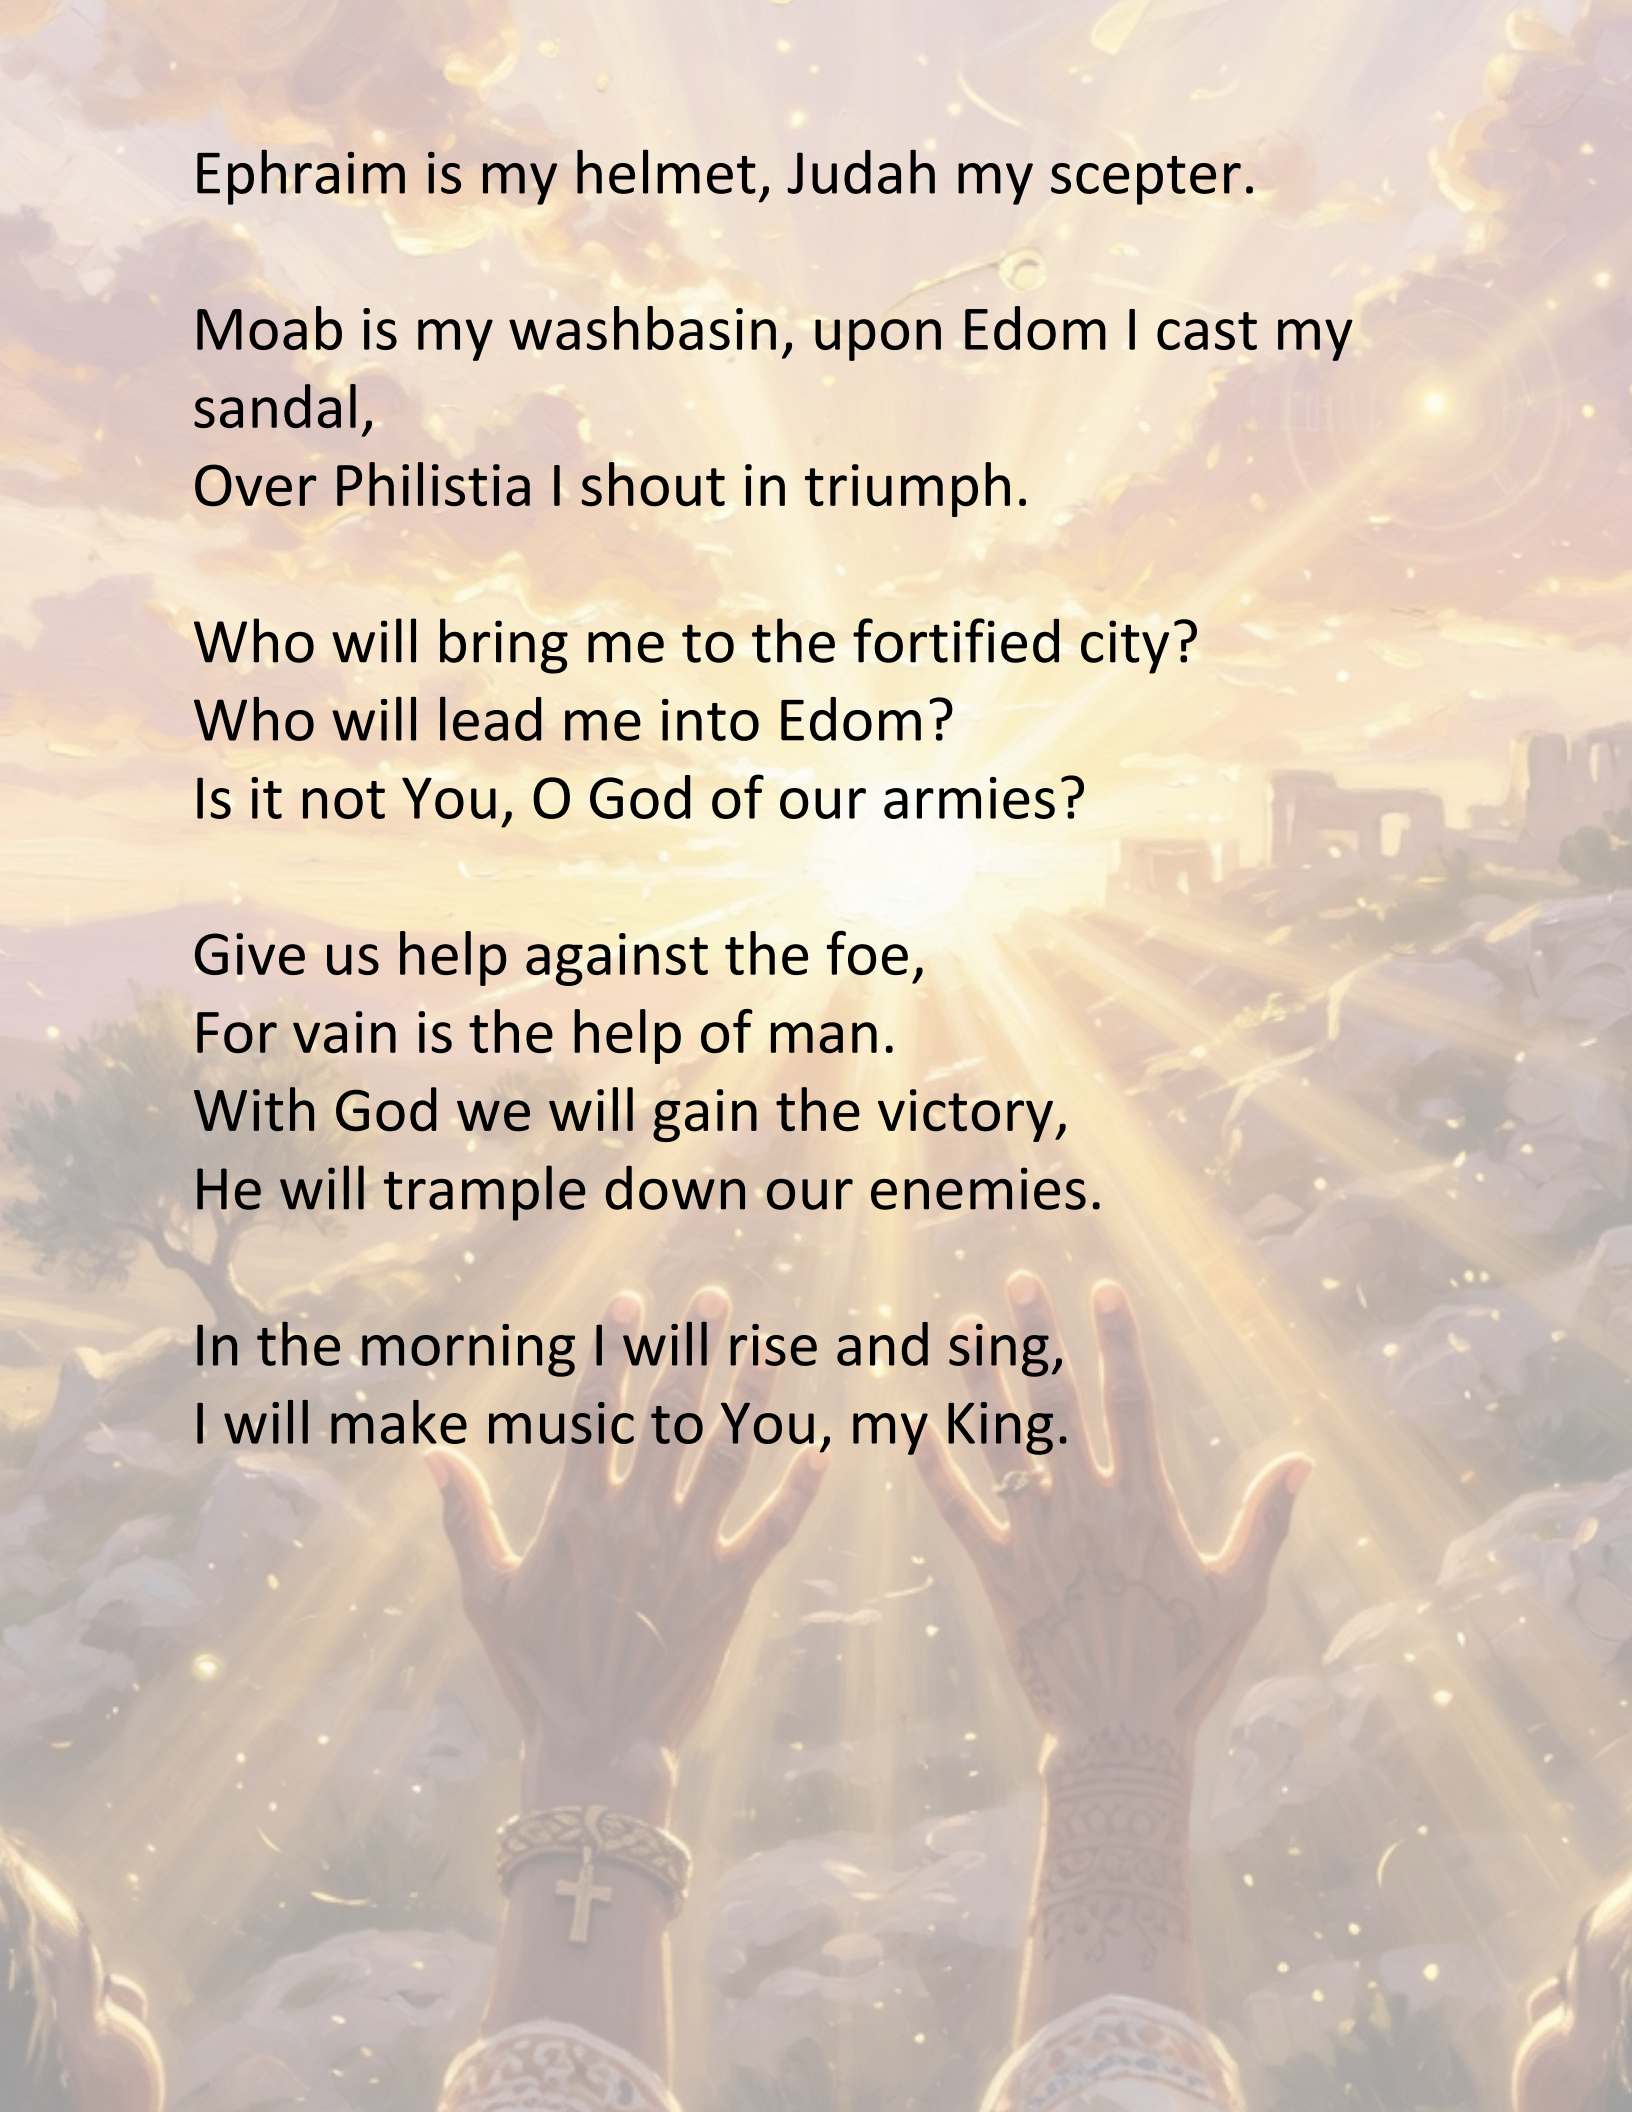

In the morning I will rise and sing,
I will make music to You, my King.
Awake, O harp and lyre, awake!
I will awaken the dawn for Your sake.

I will praise You among the peoples, O Lord,
I will sing of You among the nations.
Your steadfast love reaches higher than the heavens,
Your faithfulness extends to the skies.

My heart is steadfast, O God,
My heart is steadfast — I will sing and make music.

I will divide Shechem and measure the Valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine,

Ephraim is my helmet, Judah my scepter.

Moab is my washbasin, upon Edom I cast my sandal,
Over Philistia I shout in triumph.

Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me into Edom?
Is it not You, O God of our armies?

Give us help against the foe,
For vain is the help of man.
With God we will gain the victory,
He will trample down our enemies.

In the morning I will rise and sing,
I will make music to You, my King.
